TO FIND LENGTH OF DAY OR NIGHT.

At any time of the year add 12 hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

HELP! In Case of Accidents.

Drowning. 1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach and lifting by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach) direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after HOURS of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air and quiet.

Burns and Scalds. Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive or linseed oil, plain or mixed with chalk or whiting.

Lightning. Dash cold water over a person struck.

Sunstroke. Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade and apply ice-cold water to head.

Mad Dog or Snake Bite. Tie cord tight above the wound. Suck the wound and cauterize with caustic or white-hot iron at once, or cut out adjoining parts with a sharp knife.

Venomous Insects' Stings, etc. Apply weak ammonia, oil, salt water or iodine.

Fainting. Place flat on back; allow fresh air and sprinkle with water.

Electricity. Release from current—not touching body or wire with hands, metal or a wet stick. Handle body by its clothing, with rubber gloves and shoes if possible; if not, cover hands with dry woolen cloth and stand on dry boards. Then induce artificial respiration as in a case of drowning. Rub limbs and massage body.

ANTIDOTES FOR POISONS.

First. Send for a Physician.

Second. INDUCE VOMITING, by tickling throat with feather or finger, drinking hot water or strong Mustard and water. Swallow Sweet Oil or whites of Eggs.

Acids are antidotes for ALKALIES, and vice versa.

The Transcript last evening had a notice of the death, on Friday, of Alice wife of Edwin J. Brewster.
I telephoned Edwin this morning & learned that the funeral would be at 3.30 this afternoon. C. & I went to Andover to attend it leaving Boston by 2.14 train after leaving in North Station & getting home about 6. They had the Episcopal service, but with no music, in the same Episcopal church which was 1/4 filled. We saw nothing of Edwin or Alice. E. R. S. called at the Fairbanks this coming to bid them good bye. Geo. C. Dean saw about 2000 Rabbits in Fox Creek by Burn Camb. This forenoon.

Wintery day

Fine

Clear and cold with a violent gale out of the N. W. blowing steadily with no abatement at sunset. About 4 inches of snow fell between last night. It did not melt even before on sunny banks. James says there has been no better weather all winter. The air was filled with snow dust driving across country before raging wind.

I spent forenoon in house but in afternoon we all went to Pine with James & returned with cutting & hauling them. I rode down on the horse shed & walked back. Saw 2 Partridges & heard Chickadees & Kinglets. It was bitterly cold everywhere. Had a telephone call from Miss Pender & Mr. C. Henry Pender is getting ready to move.

Clear & cold but with light variable winds, chiefly S W. The snow thawed rapidly in sunny places. Despite the bright sunlight & still air there seemed to be few birds about & those all winter residents.

I heard no Bluebirds & saw none. Robins. Only two Juncos came to the seed bed. I cannot help fearing that many birds may have perished yesterday but perhaps they have merely gone elsewhere for a time as they did during our Great Snow Storm last year.

Spent day in Prescott farm with Mr. Lee & John cutting down trees. Juncos worked water holes in forenoon. Jays screaming & Chockadees calling.

Spent most of day in house writing letters and reading "Roswell Johnson". At 3 P.M. took two of the men and went to Bird Field where we found a large pile of brush. While there saw a flock of 8 Robins and one of at least 75 Redpolls, both flocks flying northward. Later heard many Blackbirds distinctly and later saw a single Red-wing flying over high in westerly direction. Then came 4 Juncos & 3 Chickadees at the feeding place to day. Spent forenoon in Cambridge.

There is as yet scarcely a tinge of green in any of the grass lands in this part of Concord. The country looks much as it did when the snow first went off. Thus far this month we have had no really spring-like days.

I spent a day at Ball's this morning with James & Lept. After transferring the smaller canoe from the new & much larger logs we got it into the river only to find that it would not float properly so we pulled it out again by 11. I drove down at 8.30 & walked back at 4.30. Birds seemingly very scarce & almost wholly silent. Saw one Osprey over river. The 2 Red-shouldered Hawks on trees at 4 P.M. The blue jays were in the

A cheerless, depressing day with icy North-east wind and not one gleam of sunshine. Robins sang a little at sunrise & sunset. The only other bird that I heard was a Flicker. The country seemed almost barren of bird life. A pair of Song Sparrows & eight Juncos came to our seed bed and the Mockers, Downys & 2 Chickadees to the tree. Pheasants crossed a little in the early morning. Spent most of forenoon talking with James about farm work.

We went out & started places for peach trees. Wrote letters on P.M. At 3 o'clock a Mr. & Mrs. Sedgwick came to look at the Titelmans' house. It did not suit them because unfurnished. They spent an hour or more here. Very agreeable people.

Early morning cold with ground frozen & pools & edges of snow & skinned over. Delightfully warm through day & mild at evening. Altogether the most spring like day yet.

To Ball's Hill at 7.30. Spent forenoon there walking with James & Pat about cabins. Pat's head to break his way through new ice in crossing river. Peter & I were working on Bedford side.

Fish Hawk hovering over river, caught fish that looked like large Perch. I could see its red fins as he came over me. Pine and ♂ Marsh Hawk over meadow. Bellman on Ball's Hill side flitted on ahead as I walked along river path. I finally alighted on a low off. tree that I stood under then among maple stems.

Returned to farm at 1.30. Worked in orchard with James in P. M. at 6.30.

Started for walk. Evening clear, calm mild. Robins Song Sparrows & vesper Sparrows singing delightfully. Heard Field Sparrows over 2 Phoebe's crowing. Woodcock perched in Berry Pasture & then flew off N. W. Started 4 Partridge live & 1 in farm.

Time

Clear & cool with light west wind. Perfect day.
"Laurentia" sailed promptly at 9 a.m.
Triple screw, about 14800 tons, new, clean,
very comfortable, good table, fairly good service.
Found Grace Hayes, Miss Roberts, Miss Morris, ^{Hobbs} Miss on board. Day spent largely on deck. River broad & straight, shores low & flat with a few high hills or low mountains in distance.
Mostly farming country with scattered houses.
Scenery tame & uninteresting. Not many birds Red-wings, Green Blackbirds, Crows, a few Herring Gulls, one Tree Swallow. Numbers of large mosquitoes with dull green-green bodies came aboard & bit some of passengers.
Reached Quebec at 8.30. Tremendously impression in glancing with western sky still radiant, clouds light blowing, much of steamers swirling about fortifications & stars familiarly outlined. Heard night hawk passing as we lay at anchor off docks for hour or more.

Very cool & interesting to the old gulf chieft.
Most of our daylight run from Fatter Point right in plain view about 8 miles off & the North Shore dimly seen in far distance. Just before sunset we were off Cape Gaspe with Bonaventure Island and Percé Rock dimly visible beyond it and to the north Anticosti showing plainly especially at its eastern extremity where I made out the cliff where the Commodore landed in 1887.

& where we made our first landing that year.
During the day I saw perhaps six Gannets and 15 or 20 Herring Gulls but not a bird of any other species although I was much on deck. I saw the aspect of a shore about a mile off.
Sunset pretty but not remarkable.

The south coast end of Newfoundland showing distinctly about 10 miles off when I came on

S.E. extremity, in the morning twilight (8.30) when the day was still glowing. Good sight nearly all day but for most part dim & misty in distance. We were off Miguel almost constantly in sight. I saw about 50 Mew a few Rose-bills, several Puffins, about 30 Kittiwakes, a Fulmar a Greater Shearwater, a flock of about a dozen Sooty Shearwaters & about a dozen Gannets. A little land bird repeated flight

Partly sunny; mostly cloudy. Chilly with fresh S.W. wind, the sea covered with white-capped tumbling waves but no heavy swells. Ship almost perfectly steady. Last night at 10.30 I was called on deck to see a huge iceberg looming dimly through darkness, like a white cloud, about 2 m. off.

We passed another iceberg from one at 6 a.m. today but Mr. Willson saw only passage ice. Later he saw a North Star. When I came on deck at 9 a.m. Finman was in sight in several directions. I saw them frequently though far away, perhaps 50 in all, mostly singly, never more than 2 or 3 together, all but one on very stormy sea and water with great numerous flopping.

At 9.30 a.m. a pair of Puffins passed flying 80 ft. above water towards Newfoundland 200 miles distant on course. The second bird saw 3 small Petrels, 1 in front 2 in a pair. Another, falling of head feathers in another, some other very.

I saw only one bird a Wilson's Petrel, apparently. Several of the passengers reported an abundance of 50 to 75 birds of the same or similar kind hovering together over some floating food close under the ship. No other birds nor any Whales or Porpoises were seen. We passed a slightly stormy storm bound to the eastward with mist on. Thus far we have seen one or more storms any day. I passed nearly the whole of today in the smoking room where I scraped acquaintance with Lord Aberdeen, a young man of kindly & agreeable manners & with Capt. Mackenzie a fine absolute fellow of the Ketchikan type who has served 17 years in India & who proved a most interesting fellow. In the evening there was a party of dancing & singing for the ship's crew in the lounge. When the time passed pleasantly & some singing as we go on our way.

We passed Isle of Man in forenoon. It is a very impressive & beautiful island with high cliffs in places. Scores of Herring Gulls followed & dived over the ship and perched on mast head. Among them 2 or 3 Great Black Gulls & many Gulls with 1 or 2 Little Black Gulls. Saw only 2 Forsters, but 2 Manx Shearwaters, & no Puffins, Murrelets, Gulls, Cormorants or Kittiwakes. Altogether the bird life was far less rich & numerous than that of the waters south of Liverpool as noted in 1909. We reached Liverpool at 3.30 & embarked in mind Church. A great striking Longhorn in progress on their festival outlaying, with 9 when we were taken off the ship in a long tug. No formal lunch from 2 to 4 in "Arabia" had been set on for 5. Clear & very warm with light S. wind. E. & I left Oxford by 11.09 train (E. having departed yesterday) for London. On the way there we passed through a more unusually drought-stricken country than I can remember to have seen before. Since July 2 not a drop of rain has fallen. The stubble in mowing fields is wholly brown, the uncut grass stems colored; the grain fields vary from pale straw to brown & harvesting has begun - a month ahead of the usual date. Even the pastures show but little trace of green. Railroad banks & hedges burnt in many places by sparks from engines. Saw hundreds of sheep & thousands of ducks but no geese. Reached Paddington Station at 12.25 & took taxi to Hall's Private Hotel, 5-Carl St. where we were in 1909. We had lunch on 2nd floor with party 3 of last year. E. joined me late in P.M. I went shopping buying a bag travel at Finsbury & to Dick's coat & camera to sell at Street. We read "Seed" in evening.

The newspapers give much space to accounts of the damage it has wrought. There are now daily reports of fires in woods, grass & grass attributed, as a rule, to ignition directly from the sun's rays which are now said to travel & direct steel rails into the sunbonnes of gigantic smoke & thereby to cause derailment of trains! Apparently it has been the driest summer & also one of the hottest, for 28 years.

I spent entire day in hotel doing but at evening I took a short walk. Mrs. Good & her daughter Edith came at 4.30 to afternoon tea with us & Mrs. Morris. Staying until 7. We talked until Mrs. Morris all the evening.

After luncheon at Mrs. Callender we went to the Cathedral. It is more beautiful & interesting than any I have seen before but less impressive than Durham or Winchester. Also visited oldest church in England St. Martin's. Heard Blackbird & Thrush in nearby field song. Heard flying over high up at evening. Old houses of S. Margery all over. E.R.S., Miss Eastwood & I left Canterbury at 9.30 reaching London at 11.30. It was rather hot & dusty in the train but the fields looked much fresher than yesterday, after an light rain. I was again surprised at the great number & extent of the Kent fruit orchards (especially of cherry trees) as we rushed through them. Birds exceedingly scarce along the entire road. I saw almost none in the fields not even Starlings or Pigeons. I wonder if the fruit growers have killed them off? There were lots of them, however, in Canterbury. After luncheon with C. & E. at Hall's I went out for a little more shopping. Bought a Scotch rug at George's & an odd little colored print in Piccadilly; also two neckties in the Arcade. C. went to bed early feeling very tired. E. & I spent an unpleasant morning writing letters etc.

It was swarming with birds mostly Herring Gulls & Black-bellied Gulls with a few big & long Black-bellied & numbers of Miners swimming close to the steamer. Saw one Skag on wing in the Orkney Sea. Birds had been comparatively scarce. Since early noon I had seen only about a dozen Gannets & as many Manx Shearwaters. Perhaps 30 Murres & about 75 Gulls following steamer. The Gulls mostly kept up an incessant noise. Many attempted to alight on the water at times. When we turned about down coast the Gulls followed as drifting birds. In mid afternoon when we were passing Fastnet Rock they gave us an even more wonderful exhibition of flight than that I saw in 1909. We were headed about 4 points off wind blowing fully 30 knots and had & many thought we were at about 15 knots. This was estimate of Parker & Allen & I agreed to it as conservative one. Flushing greatly as we did & hence almost as close to the ship as a shore-birding behemoth about 200 Gulls sailed straight on after for a few minutes without a high flap keeping pace with us. All the way they & some Black-bellied & some Black-bellied flapped & sailed alternately Brilliantly clear & pleasantly cool with fresh N. W. wind. A glorious day. The Stoms, Mary Lewis & I set forth on a walk to Long Pond at 10 A.M. We went the usual way through the woods & past the smaller pond () where ~~water~~ was dotted rather thickly with ~~clumps~~ of white water lilies and where grassy & mossy shores were bespangled almost everywhere with blossoms of Sabbatia, Cornus & Rhus. The latter most abundant & very fine. This is a suitable little gem of a pond with its setting of wild flower garden & pine clad hills. Long Pond was equally beautiful in many ways but we saw no flowers there, only great beds of tall bullrushes. We got back just in time for dinner at 1. At 3.30 we went to the Donalds to take part in the church hymn singing. At 6 we went out on the canoe crossing the rough island. It was beautiful but windy. At 8 we called on Mrs. Halliwell who then was ill & left us at 10.

Among them was a fine old ♂ Bald Pate. With their feet on one was a ♂ Scaup & a very white bird that looked like a cock Old Squab but no longer than a Buffle head. Which of them it was we could not decide. Returning we went to Cambridge Neck. It was also with birds rather scattered. There were about a dozen Black Ducks, almost as many Scaups, 3 ♂ Bald Pates & 1 Coot (Hind). One of the Scaups, a ♂, was very small & I think the heaviest. All the others were I am sure Scaups, Gulls, Grebes. Scaups, most of them females or young birds. They were diving about 200 yards from us. The Bald Pate swam about very feebly with neck stretched up & tail raised, feeding. They seemed thinner than much later Wood Ducks. There were no Gulls in the Pond to-day. Near the Engine House we saw a small flock of Ring-billed Gulls & a Sparrow Hawk. Henry Henshaw came down after I got back. We went in launch at 5.30 & dined at Atholite Club. Clear, calm mild. A rarely perfect day with a spring-like quality of light and air.

Worked a part of forenoon and most of afternoon in Museum on "Flight of Gulls" article which I am hoping against expectation to finish to-morrow & take to Kern Gall.

Made four progress despite many interruptions. In A. M. there was much telephoning & an interview with Dr. Brown who came to see C. He said that "the single word" tired spells all her troubles. Thus encouraged she walked in Garden before lunch & has decided to go to New York.
Leaving Friday with her nurse & dog & with her at luncheon & dinner. Saw Chickadees & heard Jays in Garden. Gull sang in our big elm a flock of about 30 birds which I have heard of. I think were here from Pine Sis there.

28° Fine

Clear & cold with raging N.W. wind less violent, however, than that of yesterday. Ground hard frozen all day.

In the Garden I saw a Chickadee, a Golden-crow, a Fox Sparrow, a Flicker and 2 Blue Jays. Percy reports seeing 2 Flickers there. The Fox Sparrow was no doubt the same bird noted on 18th / 19th & 20th. He may have been here ever since & overwintered. He was in the fish grave this morning.

Spent day in Museum going over letters & papers, destroying most & filing some. Billchiff working on sliding door & built shelves. Gilbert brought my lunch from Mrs. Scudder's where I had breakfast & dinner, sleeping again in my own room at home.

Wea.
Fine.

Clear & Cold with moderate N. W. wind.

In the Garden I saw 2 Downy Woodpeckers, both ♀; together on barberry. 2 ♀ Flickers eating Portulacae off the lawn afterwards basking in the sun together in a pear tree and one Crow. Heard a Jay looked in vain for the Fox Sparrow. He certainly was not here to-day.

Most of my forenoon had to be given to writing cheques for bills and signing the quarterly Estate cheques besides writing a few letters.

In afternoon I wrote out my series of Ardea herodias and arranged with Gilbert to buy the 14 skins & send them to Oberholser.

Had lunch in Museum, breakfast & dinner at Mrs. Scudler's.

SUN. DEC. 31, 1911

Wea.

First Snow Storm. Stormy.

Snow covered the ground to the depth of an inch at 7 A.M. By noon it had increased to about 3 inches.

After that fine steady rainfall until dark.

In the Garden I saw 2 ♀♀

Flickers eating Portulacae off the lawn and 4 Golden Crested Kinglets together in the lilacs. Heard Jays screaming & a Chickadee calling.

Spent most of day in Museum writing today's notes on the margins of my journal sheet for 1911.

Had breakfast & luncheon at Mrs. Scudler's. Charles Cookman at dinner. C. returned to our house at 4.30 P.M. The Malvins came out at 6.40 to supper. They stayed until 10. Jim & I had a good talk & smoke. So ends the year.

Suffragette... "A woman who, having ceased to be lady, & has not as yet learned to be a gentleman"

(By Steward)

W. B. is shown to seat at end of central table in dining saloon of "Laurentia". Soon after this another steward approaches and says: "Would you mind changing your seat, sir?" W. B.: "Why should I change my seat?" Steward: "Because you are in the Captain's seat, sir."

"Sadd & Greef". Names of Kupes of adjoining towns in Cambridge, Bay.

An American passenger on Thames Steamer said, in answer to Captain's question (at close of trip from Hongkong to Hongkong) "What do you think of it?" "At last I have seen a country that is finished."
